

APPENDIX: SAMPLE SCHEDULES

Schedule Sample 1:

	Saturday	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Theme	First Thoughts	Church as Community	Documentation and Immigration	The Price of Sugar	Community Organizing and Resistance	Immigration from various perspectives	History of Colonization in the DR	Final Thoughts
Morning	Arrival to airport. Bienvenidos by Rostro de Cristo fellows. Transportation to Consuelo.	What is a batey? Mass in nearby batey, participation in parish group.	ASCALA and current documentation barriers. ASCALA tour.	United States consumption of sugar. Tour at CAEI, sugar-mill (local sugar company).	Visit to Padre Miguel - experience of land ownership and rights, community-based radio, visit to new homes, and a agricultural project	Dia deportiva at batey with Kinder project.	Prenatal Clinic at ASCALA Travel to Santo Domingo Centro Montalvo (Jesuits) or RED Clamor (faith-based advocacy network).	Final reflection and experience evaluation. Despedida and transportation to airport by Rostro de Cristo fellows.
Afternoon	Arrive to ASCALA. Settle into rooms, orientation, focusing reflection. Dinner with Scalibrini sisters. History of ASCALA and Scalibrini mission.	Batey tour/home visit with church leaders. Home visit with Consuelo neighbors.	Home visit with Consuelo/ Experimental neighbors	Tour of Monte Coca sugarcane fields with workers and discussion with union leaderships.	Women and men's empowerment and human development groups.	Immigration policy in the DR: a perspective from immigration officials. impact on healthcare	Contextualizing history of colonialism in Santo Domingo	Feliz viaje!
Discussion	First thoughts, fears, and hopes	Experience of mass in the batey	Where did you see the face of Christ today?	Reflections on our connection to the sugar industry	Responses to injustice and exclusion	Experiences with special populations	Final nightly reflection

Schedule Sample 2:

	Saturday	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Theme	First Thoughts	Church as Community	Documentation and Immigration	The Price of Sugar	Land, Community Organizing and Resistance	Immigration affecting Youth/other perspectives	Health Care and Immigration Policy	Final Thoughts
Morning	Arrival to airport. Bienvenidos by Rostro de Cristo fellows. Transportation to Consuelo.	What is a batey? Mass in nearby batey, participation in parish youth group.	Haitian History and DR/Haiti History. ASCALA tour and staff presentations Neighbor visit: Lunch with Juana in Consuelo	Mini charla: Sugar production, exportation, etc. Tour of Monte Coca sugarcane fields with workers and discussion with union leaders..	Meet with Mother's Group or Women and Men's Empowerment and Human Development Groups	Visit Guardian (Daycare) in Barrio 41, Consuelo.	Recent developments in Immigration Policies impacting access to health care. Visit Prenatal Care Program at ASCALA. Travel to Santo Domingo	Final reflection and experience evaluation. Despedida and transportation to airport by Rostro de Cristo fellows.
Afternoon	Arrive to ASCALA. Settle into rooms, orientation, focusing reflection. Dinner with Scalibrini sisters. History of ASCALA and Scalibrini mission.	Tour and playing with kids at NPH (local foster care facility and home for special needs children)	ImpACTA: Baseball Clinic and Tutoring Program in Consuelo	NPH: Recreation time with children.	Padre Miguel Visit - land ownership / access and rights (visit community whose homes were raised by Central Romana), community-based radio and activism, visit to new homes, and agricultural project	Immigration policy in the DR: a perspective from immigration officials. Visit home for the elderly	Centro Montalvo or RED Clamor: history of colonialism, conquest, and anti-blackness in Santo Domingo. Reflection at beach: what have I seen? What am I called to?	Feliz viaje!
Evening discussion and	First thoughts, fears, and hopes	Experience of mass/community in the batey	Where did you see the face of Christ today?	Reflections on our connection to the sugar industry	Responses to injustice and exclusion	Experiences with special populations	Final nightly reflection	